Facts about Prague

Capital and largest city of the Czech Republic

- Prague is situated in the center of Bohemia on the Vltava River
- It covers an area of 496 km<sup>2</sup> and has about 1 240 000 inhabitants
- Since 1920, the official name of the city has been "Capital City of Prague"
- The phrase "Prague – the heart of Europe" refers to the location of the metropolis in the center of Europe
- The legend of founding Prague claims that a mythical Princess Libuše predicted the city's creation with her famous prophecy: "I see a great city whose glory will touch the stars"
- Prague Castle is a seat of the Head of state – President of the Czech Republic
- Prague is territorially extensive – historical buildings and monuments can be found mainly in the historical center (Prague 1, Prague 2), further away from the center is an increasing number of shopping centers, housing estates and also satellite towns (these are newly built houses on the outskirts of the city)
- Prague is also the seat of Government of the Czech Republic
- Territorially, it is administered by the Prague City Hall, which serves as both a municipal and a regional authority
